DO YOU KNOW MY GARDEN?

SONG

Words by
PHILIP HENRY

Music by
HAYDN WOOD

Do you know my garden?
Oh, it's wonderful in the morning! Dear, if you would only come,
You would see the roses open, To the drowsy bee's soft hum,
There's a dear little pond with gold-fish, There are marigolds tipped with dew;
Oh, I wish you could know my garden, For my garden was made for you.

Do you know my garden?
Oh, it's wonderful in the evening! When the light begins to fade,
And the fairies dance in the shadows, The waving trees have made.
There's a nightingale serenading, In the heigth of his throne above;
Oh, I know you would love my garden, For my garden was made for love!

I LOVE TO HEAR YOU SINGING

SONG

Words by
LILLIAN GLANVILLE

Music by
HAYDN WOOD

Verse: There is a song you sing, dear,
Sometimes when the day is done;
A song of love and gladness
When all the world is young.
I listen and weave in my dreaming
Joys that to-morrow may bring,
And there's never a care in my heart, dear,
When that wonderful song you sing.

Refrain: I love to hear you singing,
I love to hear your song
When the sunset rays are passing
And the shadows growing long.
When stars are softly shining
Through the twilight's tender glow
I love to hear you singing
Just the sweetest song I know.
